Interaction Program with students from France

On 14th November 2024, the Faculty of French at LFDC organised an enriching Interaction and Cultural Exchange Program in Montfort Hall with the Students and Faculty from St Gabriel School, Paris, France to promote intercultural academic and cultural ties. The event commenced with a warm welcome note by Rev. Bro. John Kallarackal, Director, LFDC, who emphasized the importance of the event. The coordinator of French faculty introduced the French delegation. The students of LFDC as well as the French students showcased their dance and singing performances. Students from both the groups engaged in an interaction session about the lifestyle, culture and academics which enhanced their linguistic and cultural understanding. To commemorate the event, LFDC presented souvenirs to the faculty and students from France. The program concluded with a vote of thanks by Ms A. Harini, faculty of French followed by the visit to the LFDC campus.
