

LITTLE FLOWER DEGREE COLLGE, UPPAL, HYDERABAD

REPORT:

A TWO-DAY NATIONAL SEMINAR AT CENTRAL INSTITUTE OF HINDI, HYDERABAD

A Two-Day National Seminar in Hindi was organized at the Central Institute of Hindi, Hyderabad on March 18th and 19th, 2024. The seminar focused on the literature of Prof. N. Gopi and Nikhileshwar, distinguished recipients of the National Sahitya Academy award for Telugu literature. These two writers are prominent figures in Telugu literature, having brought immense honor to the language through their prolific writings. Their works have left a lasting impact on Telugu writers of their time and subsequent generations.

Within the vibrant ambiance of the seminar, Smt. Sheela Balaji, a distinguished Hindi lecturer at LFDC, Uppal, gracefully unveiled her scholarly exploration. Delving into the profound verses of "Vridhohanishadh," a treasure trove of Telugu poetry crafted by the esteemed Prof. N. Gopi, she illuminated the essence of mature life's journey. Her paper, eloquently titled "Vridhawastha: Arambh Hai Snehil Jeevan Ka," encapsulated the tender genesis of affectionate existence, resonating with the audience's hearts and minds."

Smt. Sheela Balaji eloquently presenting her meticulously crafted research paper, capturing the attention and admiration of the audience with her profound insights.

Telugu writer Prof. N. Gopi, Prof. Rishabh Deo Sharma, and a captivated audience filled the seminar hall as they attentively listened to Smt. Sheela Balaji delivering her insightful research paper.

