Outcome	The open quiz was a unique platform for students to know about the various articles in the Constitution of India that are related to reservation & anti- discrimination policies for SC/ST communities.

SC/ST Protection & Support Committee organised an awareness program on Articles related to the protection & support for SC/ST in Constitution of India on 16th April 2025. The aim of this program is to bring to the knowledge of the students about various Articles in the Constitution of India that support the upliftment of the downtrodden communities. The Constitution of India recognizes certain castes, races and tribal groups as Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes under Article 341 and 342. Scheduled Castes are those castes/communities who suffered from the age-old practice of untouchability, who are subjected to geographical isolation and need special consideration for safeguarding their interests. The term “Social Justice” in context of reservations primarily aim to achieve elimination of caste-based discrimination. 45 students participated in the open quiz, where information on the articles related to reservation and the Constitution of India was provided to them, the participants explored and found the answers for the questions. The open quiz was a unique platform for students to know about the various articles in the Constitution of India that are related to reservation & anti- discrimination policies for SC/ST communities.
