Report of Academic year 2019-20

❖ Event: 1

Name of the program: Language Quiz

Date: 11. 01. 2020

Venue: Montfort Hall

Participants: Students of VV Club from all Courses

Vernacular voices club organised an event called 'Quiz Competition' on 28.01.2020 at 2: 00am. The quiz was oral and was conducted in all the five languages taught in the college, namely, Sanskrit, Telugu, Hindi, French and English. The quiz had 3 rounds, with 5 teams. In each team the students were taken from 5 languages. The quiz had 3 rounds.

The First round questions were on the two great epics- Ramayana and Mahabharata. The students actively participated and had good knowledge about the epics.

The Second round consisted of students who answered the maximum questions. This round consisted of questions related to general knowledge of languages. This round also saw the students answering well.

The Third and final round was translation of words, numbers and phrases from all the five languages. The students did comparatively well in the last round. The team which scored the highest marks were awarded with pens.

The main objective of conducting this oral quiz was to bring awareness about Indian literature and also to make them understand the beauty and significance of languages in the modern day.
