Date	:	10-09-2018 to 05-10-2018
Venue	:	LFDC Campus
Number of Participants	:	47

The English Department at Little Flower Degree College organized a two-day session on Non-Verbal Communication for BSc final year students on September 25-26, 2018. Led by Ms. Suvarna, HOD of the English Department, the workshop delved into the significance of non-verbal cues in effective communication.

Day 1 focused on the basics, with Ms. Suvarna delivering an introductory lecture on body language and facial expressions. Students participated in activities demonstrating how non-verbal cues convey emotions. The day concluded with a group exercise on gestures and postures.

Day 2 explored the role of eye contact and other non-verbal signals. Role-playing scenarios helped students grasp the impact of eye contact in different contexts. Pair and group activities enabled them to practice interpreting non-verbal cues. The workshop ended with a reflective session, highlighting significant improvement in students' non-verbal communication skills.

Venue : Centre for English Language and Training (CELТ), OU
Number of Participants : 26

The Department of English conducted a field trip to the Centre for English Language & Training (CELТ). The whole team of CELТ consisted of trained and experienced lecturers in English language Training. This field trip was conducted so that the students would be able to improve their speaking and communication skills. The interaction between the professors and the students was quite interesting as they were told new things about the language. The first thirty minutes was an interactive session with one of the lecturers in which the students were asked different questions about this field trip and the reason for the students to attend the field trip. They were also told more about CELТ and the different objectives of CELТ.

After interaction with the lecturer, the students were engaged in an activity or game session conducted by the management of the university. This game was a puzzle based on logical thinking which the students were asked to solve. Soon after the activity session, they were called for another interesting session where each one of them was given a computer system and was told about the software that was used for this session. This software was built to learn and improve their pronunciation and grammatical skills. Every student was given headphones and was asked to use the software. This software taught them about the pronunciation of different words and the stress on syllables.

Name of the Program : Presentations
Date : 23 April, 2019
Venue : Ground Floor - Corridors, Little Flower Degree College, Uppal
Number of Participants : 05

English is referred to as a "world language", or the "lingua franca" of the modern era. English Language Day at the UN is celebrated on 23rd April, the date traditionally observed as both the birthday and date of death of William Shakespeare. The Day is the result of a 2010 initiative by the Department of Public Information, establishing language days for each of the Organization's six official languages. The purpose of the UN's language days is to celebrate multilingualism and cultural diversity as well as to promote equal use of all six official languages throughout the Organization. Students of 1st year made and presented various charts on William Shakespeare, the importance of English, language, and vocabulary.
